Letter dated 29.4.12 from Mr. A. Cornelius Bowringpet — Requests that the name of his nephew Mr. E. H. Yauhl, who has been in business with himself for the past eight years, may be entered in the Office books as Joint Proprietor of the Kolar Gold Fields News and Press and as Printer and Publisher

The quarterly return has been superseded and an annual statement of all ^{news} papers published in the state has been prescribed recently. The file relating to this was subd with a offt circular to Dist Magistrates orders for being brought up with another file in which there is a proposal to get ~~the~~ direct from the Editors, Proprietors &c of Newspapers the particulars required for the Return. (2) As it will take some time ~~for~~ for the Dft in that file to issue, another dft circular asking the District Magistrates to discontinue the quarterly returns in future, is subd.

(3) As regards the request made by Mr. A. Cornelius in sl 65, it is observed that in the issues of the Kolar Gold Fields ^{News} itself, the name of Mr. Yaull does not appear at all. All along, ^{the name of} Mr. Cornelius is ~~is~~ being printed at the end of the paper as its Editor. Besides, before making any change as requested, it is necessary to ascertain whether in the declarations made under sections 4 & 5 of Act XXV of 1867, the name of Mr. Yaull appears as Joint Proprietor of the Press and ~~of~~ ~~the~~ as Joint Printer and Publisher of the K. G. F. News. A dft to this effect is also put up for orders.

is served in issuing the interim Circular now. There would have been some use if it had been ~~sent~~ ^{sent} some the Dist. Magts. the labour of preparing and submitting the returns. Now all have been recd ~~and~~ for the quarter ended March, and the Circular can only be of use with ref^{ce} to the current quarter. The Circular ^{separately under considⁿ} may itself issue by then. The returns now received may perhaps simply be filed.
